

The Indiana Do Not Call list is one of the best, most effective pieces of legislation ever passed. The residents of Indiana have spoken that we do NOT want unwanted telemarketing calls to invade our homes. This includes businesses with which we may happen to have a relationship with. DO NOT concede to corporate greed and sell out the wishes of the citizens of Indiana by allowing the weakening of our do not call list.